Working together to keep the arts alive

Muhlenberg Arts Council's Ember Oglesby Arts Day Camp

Who can participate: Any student interested in exploring the arts this summer and that are entering into grades 1-8 for the 2018/2019 school year.

Dates of the event: June 4th-8th 2018

Times of event: For students grades 1-4 camp will be from 8:30am-12:00pm
For students grades 5-8 camp will be from 12:30pm-4:00pm

Location: On the June 4th all Arts Camp participants will report to Felix Martin Jr. Hall. On June 5th participants will report to the Downtown Central City square for their camp experience on Tuesday. The remainder of the camp will take place back at Felix Martin Jr Hall.

Details of the Camp: The Muhlenberg Arts Council's Arts Day Camp has been renamed permanently in memory of Ember Oglesby. Ember Oglesby was a true pursuer of the arts. She loved being involved with drama and band, but her passion extended to all the arts as a whole. She herself had the opportunity to participate in the arts camps in previous years and enjoyed every minute of it. We, as the Muhlenberg Arts Council, wanted to dedicate this event in her honor because we know how much she would have loved to participate in the event and now she always will. The Ember Oglesby Arts Day Camp is an opportunity for students to explore the different art forms of dance, drama, music, and visual art all while having fun! This year's theme is "A Quest for the Arts" and is based on the book Quest by Aaron Becker. This is a follow up on last year's theme "A Journey through the Arts" however your student did not have to attend last year's camp in order to participate in this year's. On June 5th, camp will be at the square in Central City. The rest of the camp will be spent with hands on experiences in the arts at Felix Martin Jr. Hall. We will also conclude the camp with a presentation on the evening of June 8th at 6pm where family and friends can come to see what the participants have explored in the arts through the week. We hope you can join us for this fun filled week!
